

Anisfield-Wolf book prizes bring a world of understanding to our doorstep

Anisfield-Wolf book prizes shine an international spotlight on books that sharpen our understanding of racism and deepen our appreciation of human diversity.

The Cleveland Foundation is proud to host annual ceremonies in Cleveland. We applaud the 2009 winners – Louise Erdrich, Nam Le, Annette Gordon-Reed, and Paule Marshall.

If celebrating diversity is important to you, why not join us?

When you give to your favorite causes through the Cleveland Foundation, you can tap into our experts in investing and grantmaking so that your gift lasts – and keeps on giving – forever.

Junot Díaz won a 2008 Anisfield-Wolf book prize for his novel, “The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao.”
