

When neighbors join hands, neighborhoods grow strong

Neighborhood Connections, a small-grants program funded by the Cleveland Foundation, gives grants of up to $5,000 directly to groups doing good works in their community.

Since 2003 it has funded more than 1,000 grassroots projects throughout the city by getting resources into the hands of people who can make a difference.

If neighborhood improvement is important to you, why not join us?

When you give to your favorite causes through the Cleveland Foundation, you can tap into our experts in investing and grantmaking so that your gift lasts – and keeps on giving – forever.

Proud participants in “The Big Boom Project,” funded by Neighborhood Connections, painted houses, planted a garden and spruced up their neighborhood.
