Explanation: MS. SCHULZ RECEIVED SEVERANCE PAYMENTS TALLING $123,746 IN 2013. IN ADDITION, THE FOUNDATION PAID COBRA MEDICAL AND DENTAL INSURANCE PREMIUMS TALLING $15,044 IN 2013.

Effective January 1, 2012, the Board of Directors expanded eligibility for the supplemental executive retirement plan ("SERP") to all officers who are at the senior vice president level and above. The purpose of the SERP is to provide benefits to SERP participants on the same basis as are provided to all employees under the foundation's 403(b) plan in the situations where amounts allocated under the 403(b) plan are limited by federal tax law (resulting in a "prevented allocation"). Under the SERP, each year an amount equal to 105.5% of the SERP participant's prevented allocation is credited to his or her SERP account. Because this amount is immediately vested and taxable, a partial distribution is made to the participant as necessary for payment of current year taxes.

Following retirement, death, or other termination of employment, the undistributed balance of the SERP account (with earnings credited annually at a rate determined with reference to the 403(b) plan) is distributed to the participant in two annual installments. No funds are set aside for payment of SERP benefits; they are completely unfunded and each participant is an unsecured creditor of the organization. In 2013, MR. RICHARD ($43,424) AND DR. ECKARDT ($7,819) received benefits under the SERP.

The foundation also allows for participant contributions under a 457(b) plan. Under the 457(b) plan, eligible participants may elect to defer funds up to the annual limit imposed by the federal tax law.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6:

Explanation: The Cleveland Foundation is a community foundation comprised of multiple trusts and Ohio nonprofit corporations, all of which are treated as one tax exempt charity for federal tax purposes. The nonprofit corporations that are part of The Cleveland Foundation each have members who are the same individuals who from time to time are serving as directors of those organizations. The members have a right under their respective nonprofit corporation's governing instruments and under Ohio Nonprofit Corporation Law to participate in the nonprofit corporation's governance.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a:

Explanation: The Cleveland Foundation is a community foundation comprised of multiple trusts and Ohio nonprofit corporations, all of which are treated as one tax exempt charity for federal tax purposes. Under the instruments for the trusts, various members of the Distribution Committee of The Cleveland Foundation are appointed by designated public and civic official appointing authorities, various members are appointed by a committee of the trustee banks for the trusts AND SOME MEMBERS ARE APPOINTED BY THE DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE ITSELF. In the case of the nonprofit corporations that are part of The Cleveland Foundation, the members under Ohio Nonprofit Corporation Law are assigned the authority to elect the Directors; however, these directors must be the same individuals appointed from time to time to serve as Distribution Committee members under some of the trusts that are a part of The Cleveland Foundation.

Name of the organization The Cleveland Foundation	Employer identification number 34-0714588

Explanation: Management prepares the Form 990, then reviews the prepared Form 990 with its outside auditors and its outside counsel. The Audit Committee of The Board of Directors then meets to conduct a thorough review of the Form 990 and all schedules. Members of the organization's management, representatives of its outside auditors, and its outside legal counsel are all present at the audit committee meeting. Following the meeting, a copy of the return is provided to all members of the Board of Directors prior to the return being filed with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: The Cleveland Foundation maintains a conflict of interest policy governing the participation of the Foundation's members, directors, committee members, distribution committee members (collectively "Directors") and officers in matters in which they may have a conflict of interest. The Cleveland Foundation maintains another Conflict of Interest policy governing employees and staff. The Conflict of Interest policy for directors and officers requires an annual disclosure statement listing potential conflicts by each of the Foundation directors and officers. These disclosure statements are kept by the Foundation's Corporate Secretary. Before each meeting, using the annual disclosure statements, the Corporate Secretary provides to all directors and officers a list of the conflicts presented at that meeting based on the matters set on the meeting's agenda. Directors and officers are also asked at the meeting to report any new potential conflicts in addition to those identified by the Corporate Secretary.

Except in the limited case noted below, directors and officers with a conflict of interest under the Foundation's policy, must: (I) disclose their potential conflict of interest at the meeting (this is often already done by the Corporate Secretary); (II) present any relevant information concerning the matter involving the conflict, if requested; and (III) recuse themselves from the meeting for the discussion and vote on the matter presenting the conflict. In limited cases involving the approval of grant distributions by the Foundation where directors or officers have certain limited potential conflicts of interest with a proposed grant recipient, the directors or officers must: (I) disclose their potential conflict of interest at the meeting (this is often already done by the Corporate Secretary); and (II) abstain from voting on the matter. In addition to the foregoing, under the Foundation's Conflict of Interest policy, no organization with which any director or officer is connected, directly or indirectly through family, business, or investment, may receive any special consideration whatsoever by the Foundation for such organization's grant application, and no variation in the Foundation's procedures or standards for processing grants shall be permitted for such organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Explanation: The compensation of The Cleveland Foundation's CEO is set by the Board after review of comparable data regarding compensation paid by similar community foundations and charitable organizations for positions functionally comparable to the CEO of The Cleveland Foundation. The Board typically reviews both compensation data compiled by independent third party consultants as well as information compiled internally by the Foundation's Director of Human Resources. After review and discussion of the comparability data and evaluative information about how well the CEO achieved his and the Foundation's goals, the Board considers and sets the salary for the Foundation's CEO in Executive Session. The Board's decision is contemporaneously documented.

The compensation of other officers or key employees of The Cleveland Foundation is set using a similar process. Each year, the Foundation's Director of Human Resources compiles market data for the Foundation's officer and key employee positions and, after obtaining the CEO's evaluation of performance of each individual, makes a recommendation to the Board Finance and Administration Committee for annual adjustments to the officers' and key employees' compensation. The committee considers and approves (or modifies and approves) the recommendations of the Director of Human Resources in Executive Session, taking into account, in the case of officers and key employees, evaluative information about their performance.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

Explanation: The Cleveland Foundation's audited financial statements and Form 990 are available on the Foundation's website. The Foundation advises interested members of the public on its website that they may obtain copies of the Foundation's Conflict of Interest policies for directors, officers, and staff by contacting the Foundation's Vice President for Corporate Governance and Administration, and the website provides the Vice President's phone number and a direct link to the Vice President's electronic mail address. FORM 990, PART VII, SECTION A, LINE 1A

Explanation: The Cleveland Foundation is a community foundation comprised of multiple trusts and Ohio nonprofit corporations, all of which are treated as one tax exempt charity for federal tax purposes. A common governing body presides over the affairs of the trusts and the nonprofit corporations and is referred to as the Board of Directors of the Cleveland Foundation. The members of this body are reflected in Part VII, Section A, Line 1a, of the Form 990. In addition, several banks have certain powers and authorities under the trust agreements for the several component trusts of the Cleveland Foundation, but the banks would not be considered members of the Cleveland Foundation's governing body. Therefore, these banks are not listed as institutional trustees on the Cleveland Foundation's Form 990.
